Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man or woman; and,

Whereas, Annis Stuart began her career with the Department of Health's Fiscal and Personnel offices and then became a part of the Maternal Child Health, Children with Special Health Care Needs Program, and has spent the last 18 and a half years of her career in the Women, Infant, and Child (WIC) Program as the director; and,

Whereas, On March 28, 2003, after over 30 years of service to the South Dakota Department of Health, Annis is retiring; and,

Whereas, Annis and her husband, Dave, plan to move to Arkansas and enjoy a life of leisure in the beautiful Ozark Mountains; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 28, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and co-workers from the South Dakota Department of Health in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
